About the Scholarship

Front and Centre Stage Productions established the Blair Llewellyn Memorial Scholarship to honor the memory and work of the late playwright, author, and Front & Centre State board member, Joseph Blair Llewellyn, who passed away on March 25, 2014. Blair was enthusiastic about all forms of art, but had a particular fondness for literary and performing arts. Naturally, he combined those interests into writing plays that were performed in Allegany County, Maryland. His poetry was published in local literary magazines and he also co-authored a book of short stories with his brother, Mark Llewellyn.
